II. HOST AND PARTNERS

The Academy of European Law (ERA - Academy of European Law - ERA - Academy of European Law), based in Trier, is a leading provider of continuing training in European law for legal practitioners. Established in 1992 at the initiative of the European Parliament, ERA is a public, non-profit foundation dedicated to ensuring that legal professionals across Europe have the knowledge and skills necessary to apply European law effectively.

Through conferences, seminars, online training and publications, ERA offers specialised programmes and provides a forum for legal practitioners from across Europe to exchange knowledge and experience.

We are very grateful to ERA for hosting this conference.

We also wish to thank our other partners for helping us to set up this Programme i.e. the EU Courts, the Ministry of Justice of Luxembourg and the Studienvereinigung Kartellrecht.

III. DINNER VENUE

Founded over a century ago, Bernard-Massard (BERNARD-MASSARD | Family-run business since 1921) is a family-owned winery that has been producing wines for five generations. Located in Grevenmacher along the Moselle River, the winery is renowned for its high-quality still and sparkling wines, created with respect for tradition and a strong commitment to innovation and sustainability.

Today, Bernard-Massard is the leading family producer of sparkling and still wines in Luxembourg, producing around 3.5 million bottles annually. Its wines are exported to more than 20 countries and they have received numerous international awards, reflecting the winery's dedication to quality and craftsmanship.

During the conference, participants will have the opportunity to enjoy a dinner at this historic winery and to experience Luxembourg's rich winemaking tradition in a unique setting.

(!) A coach transfer (Emile Weber cie) departure at 18:00 from Trier to Grevenmacher. Return at 23:30 from Grevenmacher to Trier (exact location to be confirmed).
